I'm sorry, I was not aware of that policy --

Linda / Alex:Ryan is out tomorrow – could one of you email a summons to state lab for Kate Corbett and Daniel Renczkowski to appear for trial in Lawrence Superior Court on Monday, June 25 – defendant's name is [REDACTED]

Thank you!

Greg –

I just got back to the lab from court and saw your email. I'm not sure if you're aware of this but the lab director asked me to email you to make sure you were clear on it. We chemists are not allowed to leave the lab to go to court unless we have received a summons or subpoena ahead of time. As of right now, neither I nor Kate have received one for your case. I'm not sure how high the probability is that you'll need us to testify but I would be sure to send something out asap, especially because Kate is not in tomorrow and wouldn't receive it until Friday at the earliest. Let me know if you have any questions.

Subject: [REDACTED] - trial in Lawrence Superior Court
Importance: High

I just received word from defense counsel that he is still sick and that the Court will only impanel a jury tomorrow. Which essentially sets us back a day re: trial schedule. Thursday will be half day, Friday and Monday will be full day. As of now, this is who I need at Lawrence Superior Court on the following days:

Thursday (6/21)

Greg Desfosses
Ken Estes
Tom Nolan
Jack Foster
Drew Carvel
Danny Fee (not available Friday)

Friday (6/22)

Scott Richards (not available Thursday)
Linda Ricciardelli
Eric Ricci
Howie McCollin
Bill Eiserman
Richard Frampton
Glen Cote
Kate Corbett (not available Thursday)

Monday (6/25)

Daniel Renczkowski (not available Friday)
Bruce Reicklen

Let me know if there are any conflicts that I need to know of. If schedule changes as we go, I will do my best to keep you all apprised. Thank you.
